When a teacher is willing to step down from his platform and become involved with his students, learning takes on a wider and deeper dimension. Students are encouraged to think for themselves and express themselves in an atmosphere of intellectual freedom. Humor and learning become interwoven so that each compliments and enhances the other.

The Class of 1967 has been fortunate enough to have such a teacher. His name is Mr. Thomas O'Connor. To us he has given of himself, and we treasure his gift. It has been a gift of inspiration as a teacher, a gift of guidance as class advisor, a gift of talent as co-director of plays, a gift of energy as Junior High football coach.

Because he has given to us so freely, we should like to express our deep appreciation by dedicating to him, the 1967 Walum Olum.

Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 1967:

"Do not pray for easy lives. Pray to be stronger men! Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers. Pray for powers equal to your tasks."

Phillips Brooks

This year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty seven, your graduation year, presents to you a world in turmoil: on the one hand, the threat of racial suicide by lethal storms of intercontinental missiles, bitter cold war sporadically breaking out into small hot wars, and conflict between the ideologies of free men and slavery; on the other hand, the thrilling horizons of elimination of disease and suffering, of the end through automation of man's centuries of drudgery, of man's exploration of the unknowns of outer space, and of peace among men through an effective United Nations.

These are times to make the faint-hearted quail, or to challenge the stout-hearted to greater heights of achievement. I recommend to you the philosophy of Brooks. I, with confidence, believe that you will meet these great challenges of 1967 in a far better way than has my generation met its challenges.

Good luck. Come back to visit your friends at Upper Perkiomen.

Donald C. Thompson,
Superintendent

YEARBOOK MESSAGE
1967

The theme which you have chosen for your yearbook, "A Look At Ourselves", a self-evaluation, is in itself unique.

The goal of helping each individual achieve his unique character is one of giant proportions. The complex and interrelated world with its social, economic, political, religious, and idealogical conflicts seems to raise insurmountable barriers to achievement of this goal. However, from history we learn that the more complex life becomes, the greater is the need for independence and individuality.

Since it is the schools which must largely assume responsibility for preserving and developing the special talent and character of each individual, it is hoped that the years spent at Upper Perkiomen will reflect an image of pride as you take a look at yourself.

Best wishes!
C. A. Roth

YEARBOOK MESSAGE

Many years ago Robert Burns expressed the fervent wish that some Power give us the gift of being able to see ourselves as others see us. An essential ingredient of such a "look. at ourselves" is an understanding of ourselves and our motives. All the educational efforts here at Upper Perkiomen have been directed toward providing you with this knowledge of yourself and your relationship to other people and the world in general. Now you must assume more and more responsibility for attaining this inward perception. May the future years provide you with further and deeper understanding.

Warren C. Schlegel

CLASS OF 1967

STANDING: Bob Hand, Treasurer; Pete Reigner, President; Neal Hunsberger, Vice President; SEATED: Gwenn Stoudt, Secretary.

It started out with excitment subdued by awe, with a feeling of importance crushed by the superior air of the upperclassmen. We came in all shapes and sizes, in all degrees of maturity. For two years we labored singly, unnoticed. And as we labored we grew-grew in knowledge of history and mathematics, English and science, grew in the knowledge that achievement often comes through the unity of many minds. And so we united.

In the fall of 1962 we officially organized as the class of 1967. From the midst of the confusion which was the first class meeting the freshmen class officers emerged. Madame President was Mary Stevens and Pete Reigner held the post of vice-president. Joelle Roncace was elected to serve as secretary and John Cleaver was named our first treasurer. One evening later that year we held our freshman class party which we called Charades.

The following year we returned to take our place as the sophomore class. Pete Reigner was promoted to the presidency and Marty Bauer was chosen to be vice-president. Joelle Roncace won re-election as secretary and Neal Hunsberger became treasurer. The Land of 1000 Dances was the scene for our sophomore party. And so the year passed.

Our Junior year arrived and brought with it a hectic schedule of classes and activities. Junior class officers were elected. Pete Reigner returned as president, Steve Reeder was elected vice-president, secretary was Margie Beck and Joelle Roncace was treasurer. On the evening of the worst blizzard in years, we held our Junior Prom, Some Enchanted Evening. The play, "Meet Me In St. Louis," was produced by the Class of '67 and starred several talented juniors.

Finally we were seniors. The awe had turned to assurance, the excitment had been modified. Graduation came one step closer. Our fourth and final election of class officers was held and Pete Reigner was elected to the presidency for the third consecutive time. Vice-president was Neal Hunsberger, Gwenn Stoudt was secretary and Bob Hand served as treasurer. The Senior play, "If A Man Answers" was a smashing success. The mot intriguing mystery of the ages, that of the Lost World of Atlantis was the theme for the Senior Prom.

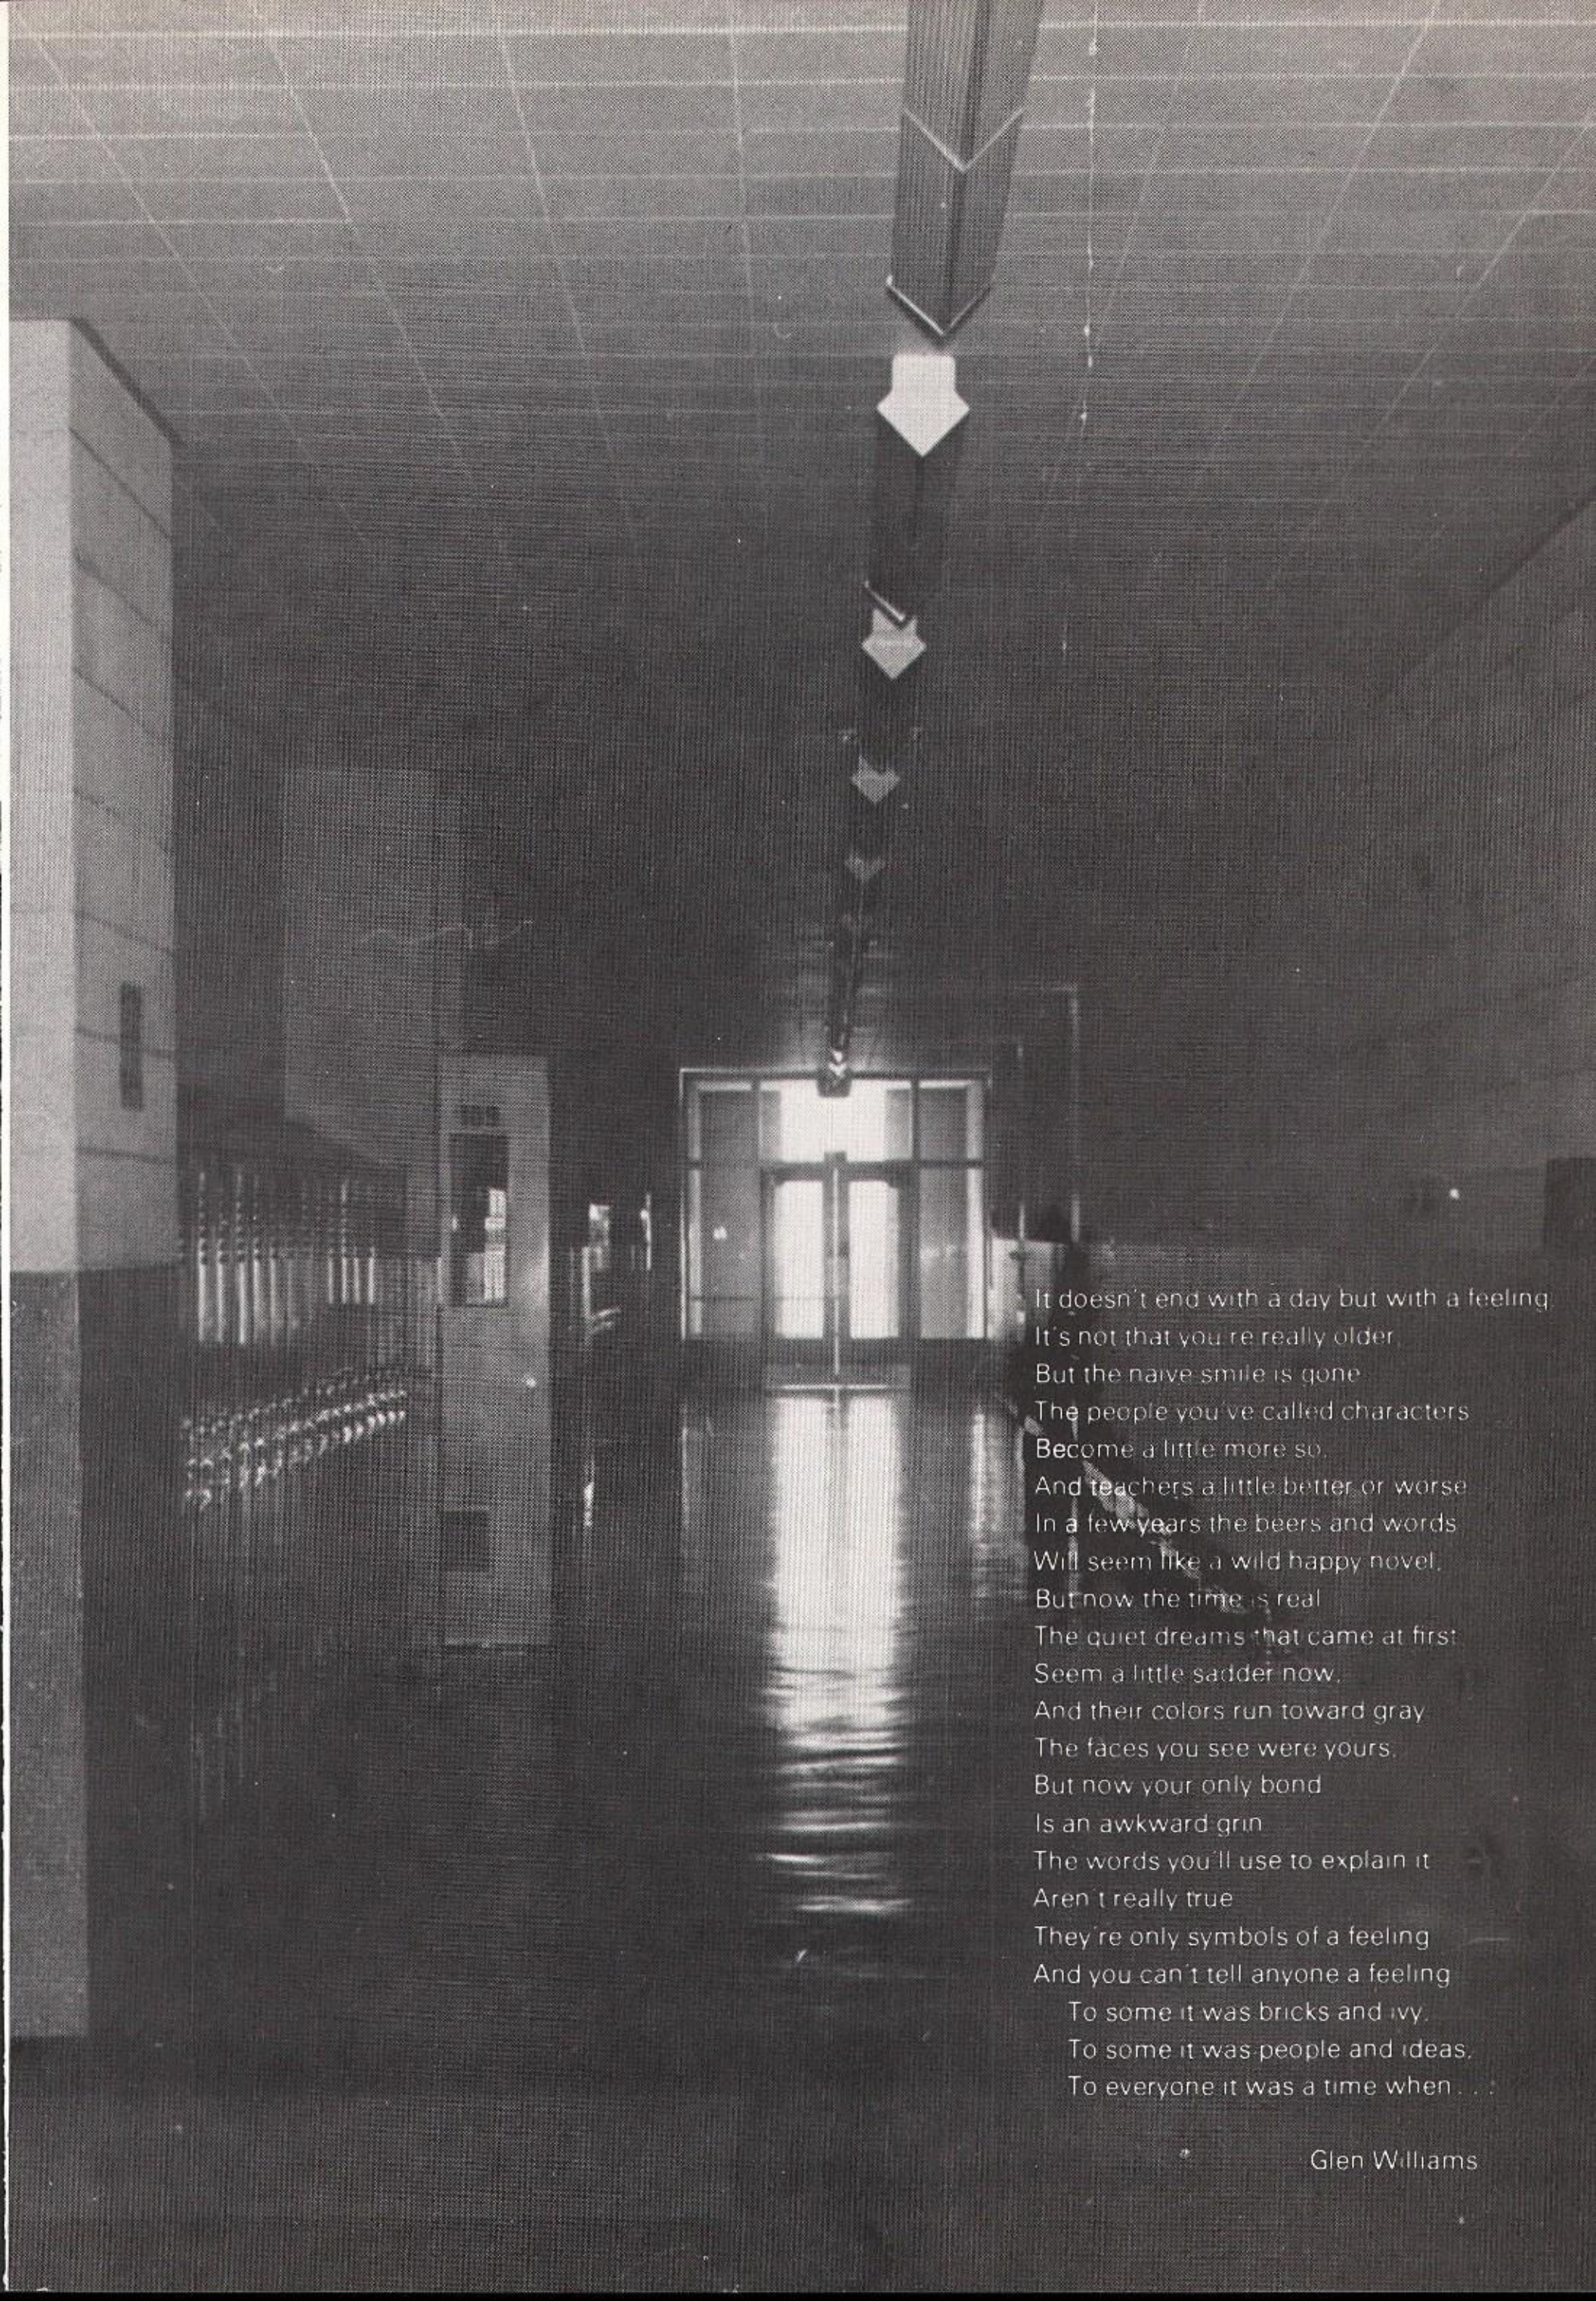
SOFTBALLERS come out swinging.



It doesn't end with a day but with a feeling
It's not that you're really older
But the naive smile is gone
The people you've called characters
Become a little more so.
And teachers a little better or worse
In a few years the beers and words
Will seem like a wild happy novel.
But now the time is real
The quiet dreams that came at first
Seem a little sadder now.
And their colors run toward gray
The faces you see were yours.
But now your only bond
Is an awkward grin
The words you'll use to explain it
Aren't really true
They're only symbols of a feeling
And you can't tell anyone a feeling
To some it was bricks and ivy.
To some it was people and ideas.
To everyone it was a time when . . .
